Case No. 08 CV 1011 W JMA

COMPLAINT FOR:

- (1) BREACH OF TRIBAL COMPACT
- (2) BREACH OF CONTRACT FOR
THE BENEFIT OF THIRD PARTY
BENEFICIARY
- (3) BREACH OF CONTRACT FOR
VIOLATION OF FEDERAL RIGHTS
- (4) DECLARATORY RELIEF

1 Plaintiff, Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians (hereafter
2 "Plaintiff" or the "Tribe") alleges:

3
4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5
6 1. Plaintiff is and at all times mentioned herein was a federally
7 recognized Indian Tribe based in the State of California.

8
9 2. The jurisdiction of this Court over the subject matter of this
10 action is predicated on: 28 USC § 1291; 28 USC § 1362; 25 USC § § 2701 et seq.
11 ("IGRA"); and State pendent jurisdiction. The Indian Commerce Clause of the 12 United States Constitution (Art. I, 8, Clause 3); 28 USC § 2281 (Washington et al.
13 v. Confederated Tribes of the Colville Indian Reservation et al., 447 US 134; 100 S.
14 Ct. 2069; 65 L. Ed.2d 10; the Supremacy Clause of the U.S. Constitution, Art. VI,
15 Clause 2; Goosby v. Osser, 409 US 512, 518 (1973); and Section 9.0 et seq. entitled
16 "DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROVISIONS" in the Tribal Compact more specifically
17 described below.

19 3. Venue in the Central District is proper because the events or 20 omissions giving rise to the claim occurred (and are occurring) in this District.
21 Specifically, the Tribe and the Tribe's Casino, which is the subject of this Complaint
22 are located in the County of Riverside, which lies within the jurisdiction of this 23 District.

24
25 4. The Tribe has exhausted all of its administrative remedies
26 including its completion of the meet and confer requirements under the Tribal 27 Compact as described below.
28

1                   THE PARTIES, THE COMPACT AND THE CASINO

2

3                   5.       This case centers around the terms of a "Tribal Compact" for

4 Class III gaming entered into between the Tribe and the State of California on or

5 about October 8, 1999, and State taxation of income from a Casino operated on the

6 Reservation of the Tribe in Coachella, California. The central issue in dispute is

7 whether the State can impose California state personal income tax, or PIT, upon

8 income generated by the Tribe from operation of the Casino and distributed to the

9 Members of the Tribe pursuant a "Revenue Allocation Plan" approved by the United

10 States Bureau of Indian Affairs pursuant to the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory

11 Act, and/or upon compensation paid to Members working at the Casino.

12

13                   6.       The Tribe is an Indian tribe federally recognized tribe by the 14 Secretary of the Interior of the United States of America.

15

16                   7.       Arnold Schwarzenegger is the Governor of the State of 17 California and Edmund G. Brown, Jr. is the Attorney General of the State of

18 California and they are sued in their official capacities as officers and

19 representatives of the State of California.

20

21                   8.       The members of the Tribe ("Members") are third party

22 beneficiaries of the Tribal Compact.

23

24                   9.       The Tribe is quite small and has only twelve Members who are

25 over the age of 18 years.

26

27

28

1           10. The Tribe occupies certain real property located in Coachella,
2 California (in Riverside County) and comprising a federal recognized Indian
3 Reservation (the "Reservation") pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 2703(4).
4

5           11. Pursuant to the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988 (P.L.
6 100-497, modified at 18 USC § 1166 et seq. and 25 USC § 2701 et seq.) (and any
7 successor statute of amendments, hereinafter "IGRA"), the Tribe and the State
8 entered into the Tribal-State Gaming Compact between the Tribe and the State of 9 California regarding Class III Gaming (the "Tribal Compact"). The Tribal Compact
10 is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.
11

12           12. Pursuant to the Tribal Compact the Tribe is authorized to operate
13 a Class III gaming casino on the Tribe's Reservation located in Coachella,
14 California. At all relevant times herein, the Tribe has operated such a casino
15 pursuant to IGRA and the Tribal Compact (the "Casino"). The Tribe operates the 16 Casino through the Tribe's wholly owned federal corporation chartered under the 17 provisions of 25 U.S.C. § 477 (the "Tribal Corporation").
18

19           13. In accordance with IGRA, periodically the Tribe prepares and 20 submits the Federal Bureau of Indian Affairs ("BIA") a detailed financial plan for 21 the Casino that is approved and monitored by the BIA. This plan is called a
22 Revenue Allocation Plan (the "RAP"). The RAP of the Tribe has detailed funding
23 requirements and financial allocation provisions. As required by IGRA, the RAP
24 provides for per capita distributions to Members of the Tribe and takes into
25 consideration, among other things, the Members' obligations to pay federal income
26 taxes with respect to the per capita payments made under the RAP. The RAP does
27 not take into consideration California personal income tax ("PIT"), which the State
28 of California seeks to impose on the Members.

1           14. The economic viability of the Casino is the lifeblood of the Tribe
2 and its Members. The Casino, the Tribe and its Members function as one economic 3 unit.

4
5           15. There is no housing on the Reservation, nor has there been any 6 housing on the Reservation at any of the relevant times herein. It would be very
7 difficult to put housing on the Reservation. The Casino and its parking lot take up
8 all of the Tribe's space in Coachella. The other parcel included in the Reservation
9 in Coachella, California comprises approximately 92 acres and is located across the 10 Interstate-15 freeway away from the Casino and near a sanitation plant. The 11 effluent from the plant flows through a canal next to the 92-acre parcel. As a
12 practical matter, the Reservation cannot be used for homes or the raising of families.
13 Because of the inability of the Tribe to provide housing to its Members on the 14 Reservation, the Members have been forced to live off the Reservation. The Tribe
15 takes the additional off-Reservation housing costs into account when it establishes 16 its payments pursuant to the RAP.

18           16. The Tribal Compact contains a number of promises between the 19 parties. The essence of the Tribal Compact is that the Tribe will pay the State
20 millions of dollars per year in licensing fees and, in return, the Tribe is to operate the 21 Casino in accordance with the Tribal Compact provisions and IGRA.

22
23           17. Section 10.3(c) of the Compact provides:

24
25                   "As a matter of comity, with respect to 26 persons employed at the Gaming Facility,
27 other than members of the Tribe, the Tribal
28 Gaming operations shall withhold all taxes
due to the State as provided in the California
Unemployment Insurance Code and the Revenue and Taxation Code, and shall

1 forward such amounts as provided in said
2 Codes to the State.”

3
4 18. The Tribal Compact, taken as a whole, in the context in which it
5 was negotiated, constituted a negotiated elimination of PIT for Members’ income
6 derived from employment relative to Casino and relative to per capita distributions
7 pursuant to the RAP.

8
9 19. A number of the Members are employed by the Tribe relative to 10 issues involving the Casino.

11
12 20. The RAP is a tribal law and rule.

13
14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Breach of Tribal Compact)

16
17 21. Plaintiff repeats and realleges herein paragraphs 1 through 20.

18
19 22. Defendants have breached the Compact by seeking to impose
20 PIT on Members with respect to per capita distributions made in accordance with 21 the RAP.

22
23 23. Defendants have breached the Compact by seeking to impose
24 PIT on Members with respect to income earned by them from employment at the 25 Casino.

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Federal Preemption)

3
4 24. Plaintiff repeats and realleges herein paragraphs 1 through 23.

5
6 25. Imposition of PIT with respect to per capita distribution to 7 Members in accordance with the RAP disrupts and infringes upon tribal sovereignty.

8
9 26. Imposition of PIT with respect to compensation of Members
10 earned from employment at the Casino disrupts and infringes upon tribal 11 sovereignty.

13 27. The State's effort to impose PIT on the Members is preempted
14 by Federal law under the U.S. Constitution's Indian Commerce Clause, Art. I, § 8,
15 Clause 3; the U.S. Constitution's Supremacy Clause; and IGRA.

16
17 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Income of the Members Is Exempt From 19 PIT Under California State Income Tax Law)

20
21 28. Plaintiff repeats and realleges herein paragraphs 1 through 27.

22
23 29. The operation of gaming on the Reservation by the Tribe, the 24 Tribal Corporation and its Members to produce Class III Gaming Income (the 25 "Operation") is a business, financial operation or venture.

26
27 30. The Tribe, the Tribal Corporation and the Members of the Tribe
28 are associated together as co-owners for profit in a syndicate, group, pool, joint

1 venture or other unincorporated organization through or by means of which the
2 Operation is carried on.

3
4 31. The Operation is a separate, unincorporated business entity for 5 purposes of the PIT.

6
7 32. The Operation is not an entity required to be treated as an
8 association taxable as a corporation for purposes of the PIT.

9
10 33. The Operation is not a trust or estate for purposes of the PIT.

11
12 34. The Operation is a separate entity required to be treated as a
13 partnership for purposes of the PIT.

14
15 35. The Operation and each of its constituents, including the Tribe,
16 the Tribal Corporation, are persons authorized in accordance with IGRA to conduct
17 the Class III gaming operation on the Reservation, including the Casino.

19 36. Pursuant to IGRA Section 2710(d)(4), Class III gaming income
20 from the Operation of the Tribe, the Tribal Corporation and each such an authorized
21 person is exempt from state taxation, including PIT, unless otherwise agreed to by 22 the Tribe.

23
24 37. The Tribe has not agreed to the imposition PIT on Class III
25 gaming income from the Operation of the Tribe, the Tribal Corporation or any such 26 authorized person.

1           38. Pursuant to fundamental principles of partnership taxation, the
2 character of such Class III Gaming Income as exempt from PIT is determined at the
3 level of the Operation as a separate entity treated as a partnership for income tax
4 purposes.

5
6           39. Pursuant to fundamental principles of partnership taxation, the 7 character of income from the Operation as exempt from PIT flows through to the 8 Members with respect to each Member's share of such income, and such income
9 remains exempt from PIT in the hands of the Members when allocated to them and 10 when received by them as per capita distributions pursuant to the RAP.

11
12           40. Each Members' share of the income from the Operation
13 increases the tax basis of the Member's interest in the Operation.

14
15           41. Per capita distributions to Members of income from the 16 Operation pursuant to the RAP are distributions by a partnership to a partner for 17 federal and California income tax purposes as described in Section 731 of the 18 United States Internal Revenue Code.

19
20           42. Per capita distributions to a Member of income from the 21 Operation pursuant to the RAP are applied to the basis of the Member in such 22 Member's interest in the Operation.

23
24           43. The increase in of a Member's basis in the Operation from 25 allocation to the Member of income from the Operation offsets per capita
26 distributions from the Operation pursuant to the RAP, and consequently such per 27 capita distributions are not taxable to the Members.

28

1           44. Compensation of a Member earned from employment at the
2 Casino constitute guaranteed payments made by the Operation to such Member
3 within the meaning of Section 707(c) of the United States Internal Revenue Code;
4 the character of such guaranteed payments (including its character as income
5 exempt from California income taxation) is determined with reference to the exempt
6 character of the income of the Operation from the Casino; and therefore such 7 compensation us exempt from PIT.

8
9                                   PRAYER FOR RELIEF

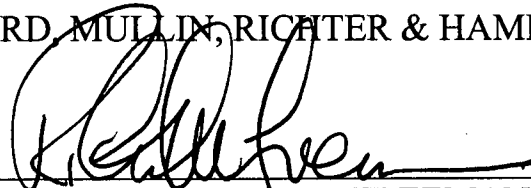

10
11           WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF prays for judgment as follows:

- 12
13           1. An order from the Court enjoining the state from imposing PIT
14 on the Tribe's Members during any tax year since 2000;
15
16           2. Costs of suit; and
17
18           3. Such other orders and directives that the Court considers just and 19 proper.
